a very strong band and orchestra.

Edward Kelley and John Bliss of Lewiston were in town, Wednesday, looking up relatives. They wanted to find Herbert Anderson, and were sure he had lived in this town for the past year.
Maybe he is at North Norway or possibly Newry. No one in town seemed to know Herbert Anderson and we guess
he lives in Newry instead of Norway.

of Portland; Nathan Stuart, machinist, of Portland; E. B. James, E. Tabbs of Norway, and five hounds. Possibly conductor Harmon may be able to kill a fox with a club, this year, but we doubt if this feat he unquestionably did at the last hunt, a year ago.

"Down on the Farm."
Charles Manley, a delineator of Yankee character of marked ability, will present his highly successful comedy-drama, "Down on the Farm," at Norway
Opera House on Thursday, Oct. 31st.
The star of the play is recognized as a standard attraction in the field of legi-mate dramatic art. "Down on the Farm" is one of the most delightfully fascinating plays ever produced with the over attractive theme of New England country life, and it is being compared by prominent critics with the well known "The Old Homestead" and "Way Down East."

The story is one of strong heart interest, its pathos and humor are so skillfully intermingled that it appeals to the artistic sense of every auditor, while the misfortune that follows the kind heart,
and honest old farmer, Seth Raskins,
the character that Mr. Manley so capably portrays, provokes the sympathy of all who witness the unfolding of the touching story. The humor of the story is abundant in quantity and refined in quality.

A feature of this company is the band and orchestra. Tickets on sale at Stone's regiment in 1861, where he rose from the ranks, filling the intermediate positions to that of captain of Co. C, to which promotion he was recommended by Col. C. S. Edwards of the same regiment. Col. Edwards reports him as among the best of soldiers, which assertion is fully justified in the fact that he duty placed upon him.

Dyspepsia

From foreign words meaning bad cook, has come rather to signify bad stomach, for the most common cause of the disease is a predisposing want of vigor and tone in that organ.

No disease makes life more miserable. Its sufferers certainly do not like to eat; they sometimes wonder if they should eat at all.

Mrs. S. H. Wallis, Hillsboro, Ohio, who was greatly troubled with it for years could not eat anything without much suffering; and Peter R. Gaere, Eau Claire, Wis., who was so afflicted with it that he was nervous, sleepless, and actually sick most of the time, obtained no relief from medicines professionally prescribed.

Like thousands of others, they were completely cured by

according to their own statement voluntarily made. This great medicine strengthens the stomach and the whole digestive system.

Hood's Pills cure constipation. 25 cents.

NORWAY AND VICINITY
Mrs. Lizzie Sampson is again clerking at S. B. & Z. S. Prince's dry and fancy goods store.
Mrs. Christine Stevens attended the Maine Federation of Women's Clubs at Biddeford, last week, as a delegate.
Mrs. Abner West of Norfolk, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. F. Stearns. Mrs. West spent the summer with relatives at Bethel.

Raspberries are evidently plenty, this fall. Little Hazel Bicknell had been berrying, Saturday, and called on us with her hands full.

J. E. Bird and wife of Bridgton drove over and spent Sunday with their Norway friends. They moved from Norway to Bridgton about two and a half years ago.

C. L. Cummings has decided to not open a bicycle repair shop. The only such shop in Norway is that of H. & E. Sanborn on Fair street, and they are anxious to sell out and go West.

Albert Hill broke off and brought to the Advertiser office, last week, some raspberry bushes laden with berries. It seemed almost like midsummer as we picked them off and ate them. Hiram Wildes also found some ripe ones on Pike's Hill.

Quite a blaze got started on the roof of George Holmes' house, lower Main street, Sunday morning. It was put out by the assistance of neighbors without calling out the fire department. It probably caught from the chimney's burning out.

Scott Wallace, the only child of Hon. and Mrs. Sumner Wallace of Rochester, N. H., died, after only a week's illness, at Lawrence Academy, Groton, Mass., where he had just begun a course of study. A disease of marrow of the bone in the leg developed blood poisoning. His age was 15 years.

D. C. Clark had a surprise, Friday night, at the Masonic lodge, when H. D. Smith with well chosen remarks presented him with a gold watch chain and Masonic charm with his name engraved on the back. Mr. Clark is to go to Boston, the last of this week, and is given him as token of regard for his work done in the lodge and as a reporter on the ADVERTISER.

Mrs. Joseph S. Smiley of Fitchburg, Mass., spent a few days with friends in town. She had been visiting relatives in Berlin, N. H., and stopped off at Norway on her return trip, to surprise folks at the home of her brother-in-law, Thomas Smiley. Mr. Smiley was in Boston on business and his wife was away visiting her own sister. So Mrs. Joseph S. Smiley was the one surprised.

The Eastern Telephone Company's Norway and South Paris telephone exchange was started to running, last week, with Mrs. Simeon Butler as hollering. The lines to Norway Lake and Mechanic Falls will be completed soon. C. H. Rawley will make headquarters here for the company, having charge of the business and maintenance of lines this side of Lewiston.

George P. Locke, who has been on the road in Western Maine and a part of New Hampshire during the last twelve years as traveling salesman for the D. W. True Co. of Portland, has engaged with Libby, McNeil & Libby of Chicago to attend to their jobbing trade in Maine. Mr. Locke has worked hard for the True Co., and it is fair to say that he has well earned the opportunity to take so responsible a situation with so large a concern as Libby, McNeil & Libby, who are the largest packers and distributors of canned meats in the world. Their last year's business amounted to a million cans a week.

Telephone Convention.

Maynard S. Bird of Rockland, general manager of the Eastern Telephone Company of Maine, for his company has sent out invitations to all officers of the other independent telephone companies, large or small, doing business in Maine to be present at a convention held at Norway on Saturday, Oct. 19. As this small lines are more numerous in this portion of the State, they had the meeting held at Norway where the Eastern Co. has a new exchange in good running order. They met at the Central, where the appliances and their workings, and planned to the folks. The crowd became too large for accommodation at the office, so an adjournment was taken, to G. A. R. Hall.

Sidney B. Bird, Rockland.
Merton L. Kimball, esq., Norway.
The meeting was called to order by

Maynard S. Bird of Rockland, general manager of the Eastern Telephone Co., the largest independent company in New England. He told the story of how his company started, in the efforts of the people of Vinalhaven on Fox Island to get communication with the mainland. They finally did it by organizing a company, paying their own line and instruments and laying a cable under the ocean. Then Rockland people began to ask for connections on the line and they opened a local exchange in the city. Then the people in neighboring towns asked for a connection and got it. And now they are trying to cover the whole State, with exchanges in the cities and villages. They want to do the long distance business, but have learned by experience that they cannot profitably control the cross-country lines through farming communities. But to connect with those small lines and furnish them a medium for larger communication is a business which has been found mutually pleasant and profitable. They are building a line from Norway to Lewiston, and expect to go into Portland soon.

C. P. Chandler of New Gloucester said that the Pine Tree Telephone Co. had been working several years, and doing well and that they are pleased to have their present connection with the Eastern.

G. W. Q. Perham of Bryant's Pond is a prominent farmer and has taken an active part in advocating telephone use by the farmers. He is on a line that has been in use about a year and has recently been made more valuable by longer connection.

Nathan C. Pinkham announced that the Holster's Mills line is ready for stringing wire.

Dr. E. H. Andrews of West Sumner, told about the cross-country lines through Sumner, Hartford, Buckfield and Turner, and wants them extended through Hebron, Canton and Rumford. Bertrand G. McIntire wants the line to J. E. McIntire & Sons' places at East Waterford, for they need it.

George Marshall of West Paris wants the country all wired up, and announced that in the near future a line will be built from Greenwood City to Locke's Mills.

James R. Day of Woodstock wants a more convenient connection with the local exchange line.

George F. Crocker, superintendent of inside construction for the Eastern, and L. M. Tripp, superintendent of outside construction for the same company, were introduced and put on the witness stand to answer questions about the details of building and maintaining lines. They were kept pretty busy during the rest of the day.

Hon. Frederick S. Walls, president of the Eastern Co., talked about the advantages of mutual helpness.

Albert D. Park said that folks were finding the Eastern a company that lived up to its agreement.

Then it was dinner time, and a bountiful repast was served by the ladies of the Red Corps, nearly sixty sitting down at the tables.

Dinner over, Alvah M. Andrews said that the independent telephone owners in Maine ought to be organized into an association, and it was voted to organize.

C. W. Q. Perham was chosen chairman and Samuel T. White secretary of the meeting, and it was then voted to have a committee on nominations appointed from the chair. The committee was C. P. Chandler, Maynard S. Bird and Alvah M. Andrews.

While they were away there were speeches by Albert J. Stearns, esq., Charles P. Barnes, Walter L. Gray, William T. Cobb and Jesse M. Libbey, esq. Mr. Cobb is the candidate for Governor, and one thing is sure, that he is a good talker—not a spread eagle orator—and says things in a very candid way. His connection with the independent telephone movement is a source of strength in his campaign.

The committee on nominations recommended the following for officers: President—Maynard S. Bird, Rockland. First Vice-President—George W. Q. Perham, Bryant's Pond. Second Vice-President—Lewis A. Gougey, Portland.

Secretary and Treasurer—Samuel T. White, West Paris. Executive Committee—Nathan C. Pinkham, Bolster's Mills; George W. Richardson, West Paris; J. M. Moulton, Warner; Eugene A. Stearns, West Sumner; Frank E. Andrews, South Woodstock; H. C. Cook, Cook's Mills; F. E. Davis, South Woodstock.

Voted to accept and adopt report, and to call the organization the Independent Telephone Association of Maine. The officers and executive committees are to encourage the formation of new companies and development of new territory, to arrange for the next meeting at such time and place as they see fit, and prepare by-laws for presentation to that meeting.

On motion of Wellington H. Eastman a vote of thanks was tendered the Eastern Co. for hospitality.

Adjourned.

The meeting throughout was enthusiastic. One thing that was emphasized by nearly all is the necessity for no cheap work or material in constructing a telephone line.

LOVELL.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, Wednesday, Oct. 9, 1901, when their youngest son, Guy R. Fox was united in marriage to Eliza E. Gilman of South Paris. The marriage took place in the parlor at precisely five o'clock, only the relatives of the bride and groom being present. Rev. J. A. Grindle of Lovell Center performed the marriage ceremony. The bride looked charming in a gown of brown with white silk trimmings, while the groom wore the conventional suit of black. Immediately after the ceremony supper was served in the dining-room to all who were present. A reception was held in the evening and the house was filled with the many friends of the bride and groom. The guests were very pleasantly entertained during the evening by Mr. Guild on the zephephone and ice cream and cake were served by young ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Fox are both very popular young people and their many friends wish them much joy and happiness during their newly wedded life.

Cheap tea is dear at any price. If the purchaser had to pay a tax of thirty-six cents a gallon on the infusion of tea—as the English did in 1661—there would be some excuse for drinking cheap tea. But when one can get Chase & Sanborn's "Columbia Blend" tea to-day at less than a quarter of a cent a cup, there is nothing but indifference or ignorance that prevents every family from drinking the finest tea on the market.

STANLEY.

A large party to the number of about 100 gathered at the farm of Charles Cole, an old-fashioned husking. They husked about 150 bushels of ears of corn and then went to the house to one of the finest suppers that any one could wish. After supper, they had a dance until past midnight, and it was not until it was the best time of the season.

knew one day how I would feel the next. I was nervous and had no appetite, neither could I sleep soundly nights. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, used in conjunction with your Sanative Wash, did more for me than all the medicines and the skill of the doctors. For eight months I have enjoyed perfect health. WHAT A BLESSING

Many of Our Readers are Learning to Appreciate.

What a blessing it is. Sought after by thousands. Many a miserable man is happy now. Nights of unrest, days of trouble. An itching skin disease means this. Itching Piles mean it. Eczema just as bad, and just as hard to cure.

But Doan's Ointment relieves at once and cures all itching of the skin. A blessing to a suffering public.

Here's proof to back our statement. Mr. Samuel Carr, of 8 School St., Haverhill, Mass., says: "I have Doan's Ointment for an eruption of leg which caused me considerable anxiety. The treatment gave satisfactory results and warrants me in saying that Doan's Ointment acts up to the representations made for it."

Doan's Ointment for sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Mailed by mail for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitutes.
